

Midsummer Night's Dream

A Study Guide for
The Shakespeare Plays
by Grant L. Voth

A MIDSUMMER NIGHT'S DREAM

A Study Guide for
The Shakespeare Plays

Grant L. Voth
Bay Area Community College
Television Consortium

Study guides for THE SHAKESPEARE PLAYS are made possible in part by a grant from the Corporation for Public Broadcasting.

THE SHAKESPEARE PLAYS, a co-production of the British Broadcasting Corporation and Time-Life Television, is a series made possible on American television by grants from Exxon Corporation, Metropolitan Life Insurance and Morgan Guaranty Trust Company, and presented over the Public Broadcasting Service by WNET/Thirteen in New York. The editors wish to thank the underwriters for their cooperation.

The editors also wish to thank John F. Andrews, Editor of Shakespeare Quarterly and Director of Academic Programs at the Folger Shakespeare Library, for help in the preparation of these materials. As Chairman of the National Advisory Panel for THE SHAKESPEARE PLAYS, Dr. Andrews supervises the program of educational outreach approved by the underwriters and the Corporation for Public Broadcasting.

Copyright © 1981 by Bay Area Community College Television Consortium

ISBN 0-8403-2592-4

All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted, in any form or by any means, electronic, mechanical, photocopying, recording, or otherwise, without the prior written permission of the copyright owner.

Printed in the United States of America

B 402592 01

Contents

Shakespeare on Television	1
Cast of Characters for the Television Production	4
Introduction to A Midsummer Night's Dream	7
Objectives	9
Activities	9
Plot Summary	11
Shakespeare's Sources and His Use of Source Material	13
An Introductory Analysis	14
Things to Watch for as You View the Play	34
Suggestions for Further Reading	37
Self-Quiz	39
Answer Key	42